Curtis P. Laukea is rapidly recovering from his severe illness.
Dr. J. E. Pinkham of the Board of Health has gone to Hawaii.
Mrs. W. M. Langton of the Paradise of the Pacific returned in the Alameda.
Before noon yesterday the Board of Registration had registered more than 800 voters.
Delegates to the Republican Territorial Convention left in the Mauna Loa and Claudine.
Dr. Monsarrat has invited the American Veterinary Medical Association to hold its next meeting in Honolulu.
There will be work in the second and third rank at William McKinley Lodge, K. of P., this evening in Harmony Hall.
Dr. M. Stamm of Ohio arrived in the Alameda for a visit to the islands, whence he will continue on a tour of the world.
Republican clubs in precincts whose boundaries have been changed are called to meet Tuesday evening for re-organization.
The dime social of the Pacific Rebekah Lodge, which was to have been given next Thursday, has been indefinitely postponed.
It is expected there will be opposition to the proposed primary election law plank in the Republican platform to be adopted at Wailuku.
Governor Carter has restored civil rights to Kaehu, who was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment in 1887 for stealing cattle.
Rev. J. W. Gunn, who comes from Colorado to take charge of a church in Kohala, arrived with his wife and two children in the Alameda.
Captain Seabury, commander of the P. M. S. S. Korea, is enjoying a vacation on his ranch at Guerneville, Cal., and will rejoin his ship in November.
Lel Aloha Chapter No. 3, Order Eastern Star, meets this evening in Masonic Temple. Visiting sisters and brothers are cordially invited to attend.
John Murphy, a straggler from the Iroquois with a price of $10 upon his head, was captured by the police yesterday and turned over to the naval authorities.

P. McLane returned in the Alameda from a journey to Porto Rico, where he accepted the management of a large sugar plantation. He will leave in the same steamer next Wednesday, if he can get his family ready for travel by that time for his new home. Mr. McLane made his mark in these islands as a plantation manager.
Two letters were received from E. R. Stackable, in yesterday's mail, by the Board of Immigration. They contained no report of his progress, if he had made any, either in obtaining labor emigrants or transportation for them from the Azores. Absence of cable advices from the agent about a steamer is taken to mean that he has not chartered one in London.
Allens contemplating naturalization may do well to remember that the new law on that subject goes into effect on the 29th of this month. Under it the process will be more difficult than under the present law, and, as generally believed, the privilege of naturalization without previous declaring of intention accorded by the Organic Act to residents of the Hawaiian Islands for five years before that Act took effect is made null by the new law.
